A stunning Italian early 19th century Louis XV st. patinated wood, giltwood, Brèche de Médicis and Sienna marble center table. The table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine gilt acanthus leaf scrolled feet and charming richly carved flowers and foliate designs above. A beautiful giltwood fillet extends up each leg and along the arbalest shaped frieze centered by a striking foliate element and fine recessed panels. Above is the original most decorative quarter veneered Brèche de Médicis marble top framed within a fine scallop shaped wrap around Sienna marble border. All original gilt and patina throughout.
