A stunning Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble statue of a boy playing with a swan on its original Vert de Patricia marble pedestal. The statue is raised by a Vert de Patricia marble pedestal which displays a octagonal base with a mottled border and a circular socle pedestal. The central support has a beautiful and most decorative spiral mottled design and circular top tier. The white Carrara marble statue above has a circular base where a charming young boy is reposed on the swan while wrestling with his hands around his neck. This statue can also be purposed as a lovely fountain. Wonderful execution and fine details throughout.
