A sensational Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu and mahogany side table with its original specimen marble top. The table is raised by three elegant circular tapered mahogany legs with impressive ormolu paw feet. At the center is a burnished ormolu band with decorative rosettes below acanthus leaves and richly chased lion heads with rings. The circular top displays stunning square specimen marble inlays including the rare Porphyry and Lapis Lazuli all framed within Black Belgian, Sienna and Brocatelle d'Espagne marble borders.
