A most handsome mid 19th Century pair of dark oak and leather armchairs. Each large and important chair is raised on topie shaped supports and block and fluted legs with carved foliate vines connected by an 'H' stretcher. The apron above with blocks flanking the front sides displays a carved running wave design centered by rosettes, surrounds the chair. The impressive "S" scrolled arms with richly carved dolphins each raised on acanthus leaf supports. Rich burgundy leather on the front and the back is trimmed with brass nail heads. Carved finials top the back of the chair. Wonderful patina throughout.
