A charming Italian early 19th century walnut and Scagliola circular center table from Tuscany. The extremely decorative table is raised by an octagonal base with four scrolled feet and a square and circular mottled central pedestal support. The frieze displayed a pressed gilt metal band with a beaded and Coeur de Rai pattern. The fitted Scagliola top displays a lovely outside scene of trees and a lake, with people and animals, framed within a decorative pattern and blue Greek Key designed border.
