A striking Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. walnut and ebonized fruitwood center table, with its original and exceptional Scagliola top. The circular table is raised by ebonized fruitwood feet below the X shaped bottom tier with concave sides. The four elegant ebonized fruitwood supports display fine ormolu plinths and capitals. At the circular frieze are pierced richly chased ormolu mounts of charming cherubs below an ormolu band. The Scagliola top displays exquisite and richly detailed foliate patterns, lions, and charming children playing. At the center is a woman, with a child, wearing a crown in classical dress, amidst wonderful scrolled foliate patterns and musicians.
