A stunning Italian early 19th century giltwood, onyx and marble Florentine side table. The table is raised by three elegant scrolled legs with recessed patinated sides framed within most decorative giltwood fillets and fine topie shaped finals. The patinated central support displays a sleek shape and rich giltwood acanthus leaves and fluted design. The superb original fitted circular top is centered by a stunning Pietra Dura inlaid Florentine floral reserve framed within striking Lapis Lazuli, Alabastro Fiorito, Rouge Antique and black Belgian marble, all set within the finely carved patinated and giltwood border.
