An important and most impressive large scale Italian early 19th century Louis XV st. gilt metal and rock crystal eighteen light chandelier. The chandelier with two different levels of lights has a most decorative bottom lattice designed dome with crystal rosettes and hanging water drop shaped rock crystals. Above are six double C scrolled arms each decorated throughout with individual rock crystals leading to the gilt metal leaf candlecups adorned by hanging rock crystal kite shaped crystals. The upper level of electrified arms flank two different styles of rock crystal daggers amidst beaded hanging garlands with water drop crystals at the center. The elegant top crown has a cross designed beaded garland below flexible C scrolled beaded arms ending with impressive kite shaped rock crystals. Exceptional quality.
