A sensational Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical period ebonized fruitwood and giltwood circular center table. The table is raised by a most impressive base with a circular bottom support centered by four rich legs each decorated with handsome and finely carved giltwood griffins. The pedestal support displays a striking giltwood reeded pattern while the frieze of the circular top displays finely carved giltwood palmettes. Above is the original fitted leather top with a most unique and decorative pattern of arrows all facing in the same direction.
