A stunning and very unique Italian early 19th century Louis XVI st. rock crystal and gilt metal chandelier. At the bottom is a gilt metal finely chased base with hanging pendants. Crystal garlands join to the central gilt metal support with foliate designs and large scrolled acanthus leaf mounts at each side. The six scrolled arms end with beautiful foliate bobeches amidst floral sprays. The arms are joined by a crystal garland, accented with kite shaped and oval pendants at each arm topped with a rosette. Garlands continue to a second tier centered by a frosted flame. Three crystal decorated chains rise to the top crown which is decorated with crystal pendants.
