A sensational and extremely decorative Italian mid 19th century Venetian freestanding Lacca Povera console. The console is raised by cream color tapered legs with pastel colored skyblue and finished with a cranberry topie shape feet. The legs are joined by an 'X' stretcher and are decorated by decoupage figures. The scalloped frieze is designed with a drape like design and additional figures flanked by smaller cranberry colored drape shapes. The richly decorated top has a central landscape with figures and a cherub amidst two additional scenes with scrolls, birds and butterflies. The top is finished by a mottled edge border.
