A stunning pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and Vert Campan marble consoles. Each intricately carved demi lune shaped wall mounted console is centered by an impressive richly carved scrolled central support leading to striking pierced seashell reserves. The seashells are flanked by beautiful scrolled movements which extend along the frieze to fine acanthus leaves at each side. Above elegant giltwood bands are the original Vert Campan marble tops with fine mottled borders. All original gilt throughout.
