An exquisite and elegant pair of French 19th century ormolu and onyx statues. Each raised by a square ormolu base with C scrolled acanthus leaf supports. The classical dressed maidens with tiara's in their hair, are beautifully executed in detail with original and rich gilt and resting on square cream and yellow onyx pedestals. One maiden has a musical instrument to her left and is holding her loose pearls from a broken necklace. The other holds a knitting needles and a ball of yarn.
