A handsome pair of French mid 19th century Empire st. six arm ormolu sconces. Each sconce displays a most decorative circular mottled back plate with charming and finely detailed floral designs. The elegantly scrolled fluted supports are adorned with large richly chased acanthus leaves in a striking satin and burnished finish. The bodies display beautiful foliate designs and detailed palmettes at the underside. Above, are the elegant arms centering the central supports. Each displays intricate floral and foliate candle cups. All original gilt throughout.
